Join us at the Centre for Japanese Studies for this in conversation event on memory, time and place with photographer Hayahisa Tomiyasu, in Norwich as part of a multi-city residency, and chair, Sherzod Muminov, Associate Professor in Japanese History at UEA.

Hayahisa Tomiyasu’s image making focuses on the materiality of urban places, and the signs and rituals through which we navigate them, which he has documented extensively during a 10 year period living in Europe. Now returned to his native Chigasaki, his work has begun to reconnect with the memories and places of his homeland. He won the Mack First Book Award for TTP (Tischtennisplatte) in 2018.

Hayahisa Tomiyasu will explore his work in conversation with Sherzod Muminov alongside a presentation of his images.

This event is in partnership with the Sainsbury Institute for the Study of Japanese Art and Cultures, Centre of Japanese Studies at UEA, and the National Centre for Writing.
